GRAND ELK

Ranch & Club

The Grand Elk Golf Course, designed by PGA great Craig Stadler and premier course architect Tripp Davis, is a par 71 masterwork playing 7,144 yards from the back tees. Echoing the attributes of traditional Heathland courses in the British Isles, the course features gently rolling fairways and strategically placed hazards.

HEADWATERS

Golf Course

Spreading across a secluded Rocky Mountain Valley with views of the Continental Divide are 18 holes of golf to challenge and reward any player. The course weaves naturally through native grasses and wetlands along the meandering Fraser River. Tee up with majestic peaks watching over you and watch your drives soar in our mountain altitude.
